

DPSG CELEBRATES VAN MAHOTSAVA

27 August, 2018

He who plants a tree – plants a hope.

Van Mahotsava is an annual tree planting festival of India. This movement was initiated in the year 1950 by the then, Union Minister for Agriculture, Dr KM Munshi. Since then, it has gained immense national importance and every year, millions of saplings are planted all across India in observation of the Van Mahotsava week.

DPSG celebrated Van Mahotsava with great enthusiasm and fervour. Ms Diksha Bhandari, District Forest Officer, Ghaziabad graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The event started with the lighting of the lamp followed by a melodious song sung by the school choir - aaj hamne pran kiya hai which filled the auditorium with environment friendly vibes. Dance and Nukkad Natak presented by the students of Secondary Wing highlighted the fact that trees fulfill our basic needs but their depletion has become a serious problem. The message was loud and clear – act now before it is too late.

Speaking on the occasion, Ms Diksha Bhandari lauded the efforts of students and spoke about the importance of saving environment by planting trees. She emphasized that youth today should actively participate in protecting the earth. She appealed to the students to keep their surroundings clean and maintain the natural resources for generations to come.

Later, students planted the saplings and pledged to save mother earth.

The programme evoked feelings of love for God’s beautiful creation and everyone present on the occasion pledged to protect the environment – plants, save the Earth for he who plants a tree, plants hope.

Sanskrit Cultural Programme and Shobha Yatra

25 August, 2018

In order to celebrate the International Sanskrit Week, Sanskritabharti organized a Sanskrit Cultural Programme and Shobha Yatra on 25 August, 2018 wherein students from DPSG, Secondary Wing participated enthusiastically.

This Shobha Yatra aimed at encouraging the linguistic creativity among students, general public and provided them with an opportunity to benefit from the systematic structure of the Sanskrit language.

It also provided a medium for popularizing Sanskrit and stimulating the interest in the language by increasing awareness about the close relationship between Sanskrit and other languages and the cultural heritage in India.

The event was hosted by Sarawati Vidya Mandir, Nehru Nagar, Ghaziabad.

CLASS X PRESENTATION

15th August, 2018

The 72nd Independence Day was celebrated at Delhi Public School Ghaziabad with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour. Rich tributes were paid by the students to the heroes who sacrificed their lives to bring this glorious day to India, through a musical theatrical drama 'Mangal Pandey'. The rhythmic drum beats, foot tapping music and vibrant dances mesmerized everyone present there. The melodious rendition of the song 'Vande Matram' by the staff members added patriotic fervour to the programme.

The Chief Guest for the occasion was Ms Laxmi Mishra, CTO Ghaziabad and Noida. In her speech she reminded the students and the teachers of the sacrifices made by our great freedom fighters and made us take pledge that we would serve our motherland, India with heart, body, and soul to bring it glory and laurels with our dignified deeds.

The presentation was a huge success. 100% participation of class 10 students was ensured.

Ms Krishna Singh, Headmistress, Secondary Wing proposed the Vote of Thanks.

A 'Kite Flying' competition was also conducted on this occasion. The students could be seen flying their colourful kites intently.
