Farewell 2018

The students of class XI bid adieu to the outgoing batch of class XII on 27th January, 2018. The ceremony commenced with the havan to seek the blessings of the almighty. The torch bearers passed the baton of responsibility to their juniors in the form of 'handing over of reins'. The entire batch welcomed the challenges ahead as they were handed over the lit candles by their seniors as a symbol of bequeathing the rich legacy of excellence to their juniors. To make the day memorable and to alleviate the pain of parting, students presented cultural extravaganza. A rendition of heart touching numbers emphasizing on the bond of seniors and juniors was commendable.

Principal, Dr Jyoti Gupta in the farewell address expressed that though separation brings pain when a batch leaves yet at the same time it is a moment of great pride that we have given them strong wings to make them soar high. She valued the efforts of Parents who play an integral role in all the activities of the school. Chakshita Gambhir of Class XI poured out her heart through her poem –'tum yaad bahut aaoge'.

The Head Boy-Saurabh Arora and Head Girl-Geetanjali shared the vast and enriching experience of the past and expressed their heart felt gratitude for the teachers who honed their skills.

Everyone wished that they may have the hindsight to know where they've been, the foresight to know where they're going, and the insight to know when they're going too far in all their ventures beneath the skies.
