

A socially responsible learning community integrates the academic, social, emotional and ethical dimensions of teaching and learning. This fosters the ongoing development of human qualities—such as empathy, fairness, interconnectedness, peaceful coexistence and respect for human life—that become a way of being.

Delhi Public School Ghaziabad, Meerut Road in collaboration with Ghaziabad Nagar Nigam organized Ahawaan, a brainstorming session to contribute towards the goal of creating a clean and green city through scientific and organized way of waste disposal. This session was attended by Principals of various schools of Ghaziabad.

The programme started with the lighting of the lamp followed by a melodious rendition by the school choir. Students of class X presented a power point presentation on waste management techniques used in school. The classical dance performance by young and exuberant dancers left the audience mesmerized.

Shri Chandra Prakash Singh, Municipal Commissioner was the Chief Guest for the day. In his address, he emphasized that students can play a major role in accomplishing the goal of making Ghaziabad one of the cleanest city in India. He also informed the august gathering about various initiatives taken by Ghaziabad Nagar Nigam to bring down the level of pollution in the city. He urged the Principals to involve students of their respective schools in spreading awareness of the various ways of waste segregation and how simple yet effective methods of waste segregation will go a long way in curbing pollution and achieve the goal of Swachh Bharat.

The other eminent guests who graced the occasion were Shri A.K.Mishra, Nodal Officer, Swachh Bharat Mission, Shri Uma Shanker Pandey, Member, Swachh Bharat Mission and Shri Sanjay Chauhan, Executive Engineer.

Principal Ms. Jyoti Gupta addressed the gathering and welcomed the guests who had graced this occasion with their benign presence. She suggested that to spread awareness among the people of Ghaziabad, a student brigade, comprising of ten students from each school of Ghaziabad, should be formed. This student brigade will become the torch bearer of the Swachhta Mission in the city.

Shri A.K. Mishra, Nodal Officer, Swachh Bharat Mission, proposed a vote of thanks.

In all, the programme was a huge success.
